

Board the Correct Train

One of the most important skills for children to develop during their kindergarten years is the recognition that letters and sounds are related. To reinforce the link between letters and their sound this activity was planned for Lkg students. Students had to board the correct sound train by identifying the letter on the engine. Children thoroughly enjoyed the activity.

