

NEW YEAR CELEBRATIONS

Our little munchkins greeted the New Year by partying hard and danced and swayed on some foot tapping numbers. They showed their creative prowess by designing beautiful cards for their parents. They made cards through vegetable printing. Such activities not only help in the development of fine motor skills but also enhances the creative instincts of the students.

Welcome 2019

