

INTRODUCTION OF THEME -: WATER

In order to acquaint the LKG students with various properties of water, they were provided with the containers of various shapes and water. They came to know that water has no shape and no colour. But, it acquires the shape of the container in which it is poured and shows the colour whichever is being dissolved in it.

The students enjoyed this activity and had a lot of fun!!

