

Madhubani Painting Competition

Art speaks where words are unable to explain. It is an expression of our soul. The artist is not a special kind of person; rather each person is a special kind of artist. Pablo Picasso had rightly said, "Every child is an artist." In order to encourage the students to take interest in art a Madhubani Painting competition was organized for Classes III to V was held on 6.11.19. It was an inter-house competition in which three students from each house participated. They used acrylic colours to make lovely Madhubani paintings on A3 size canvases. The paintings made by the students boasted not only of a wide variety of painting styles but also a wide spectrum of topics such a ritualistic paintings, depiction of day-to-day village life, natural beauty of the countryside etc. The students impressed the judges with their artistic skills and vibrant imagination as they brought the canvases to life with rustic charm. The winners were CLASS III: First prize (Deshna Banerjee III C), Second prize (Bhavya Garg III B)

CLASS IV: First prize (ParthChilangya IV A), Second prize (PurviPahwa IV B)

CLASS V: First prize (Srishti Yadav V C), Second prize (Suhavi V E)

Madhubani painting is a part of our rich cultural heritage and such competitions would go a long way towards promoting this art form.
