

TRACING THE SHAPE ACTIVITY (UKG)

Children from UKG were completely enthralled while tracing different shapes in the classroom on 4.07.18. They were trying to relate shapes to different real life things which was the added advantage of carrying out the activity. They could easily name different two dimensional shapes and were seen talking about the same to their friends.

